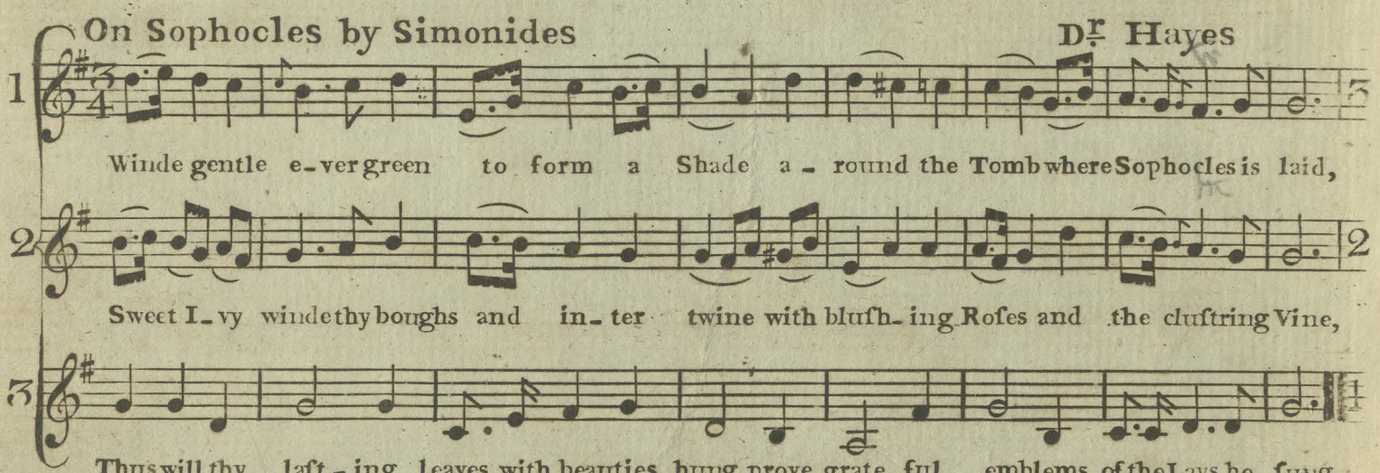
On Sophocles by Simonides

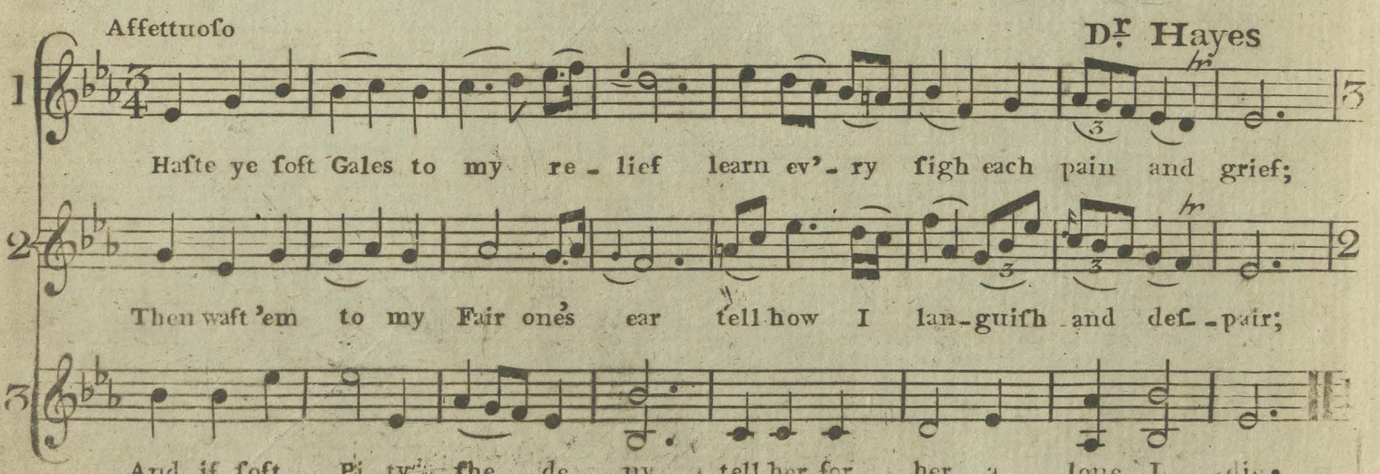
Dr. Hayes



1
Winde gentle e-vergreen to form a Shade a-round the Tomb where Sophocles is laid,
2
Sweet I-vy winde thy boughs and in-ter twine with bluſh-ing Roſes and the cluſtring Vine,
3
Thus will thy laſt-ing leaves with beauties hung prove grate-ful emblems of the Lays he ſung.

Affettuoſo

Dr. Hayes



1
Haſte ye ſoft Gales to my re-lief learn ev'-ry ſigh each pain and grief;
2
Then waft 'em to my Fair ones ear tell how I lan-guiſh and deſ-pair;
3
And if ſoft Pi-ty ſhe de--ny tell her for her a--lone I die.
